

Self-Assessment Tool for Aspiring Teacher Stage (STATS)

Introduction

To support your professional growth as pre-service teachers (PSTs), this self-assessment tool enables you to reflect on your development across PNU's five institutional outcomes. Each indicator is rated on a 4-point scale, with a maximum possible score of 64 points. Based on the total score, as an aspiring teacher, you can be classified into one of four developmental stages, each representing a phase in your journey toward becoming future-ready educator.

Rating Scale, Description, and Interpretation

Score	Description	Interpretation
1	Not Yet Demonstrated	I am still developing my understanding and ability to apply this in my practice. I seldom demonstrate this behavior or competency.
2	Occasionally Demonstrated	I show this sometimes, but I need more practice or clarity in applying it. I sometimes show this behavior or competency, but not consistently.
3	Often Demonstrated	I apply this in most situations, but not consistently. I usually demonstrate this behavior or competency.
4	Consistently Demonstrated	I consistently apply or embody this in my academic and teaching-related activities. I regularly demonstrate this behavior or competency.
